

Come on you guys, leave XM alone. I like that I can get traffic reports when I need them, Not when a radio station feels like giving them to me. I travel to a lot of cities, and don't know where to get traffic reports. Besides, I pay for the service. What about free enterprise, freedom of speech.